I have just received the attached 29 April letter to the DCI from Congresswoman Schroeder. I have called the Legislative Counsel's office (which is marked for action) to see how they plan to handle the reply.  and his senior associates were all on the Hill and, hence, I have not yet been able to talk to them. The reply will have to be carefully done and should probably await the completion of the review Paul Walsh has in train. In any event, no draft reply should go forward to the DCI for his consideration until you have had a chance to scrutinize it. I am passing along this material since the DCI likes to respond promptly to his Congressional mail, and I want to minimize the risk of you being blind sided by a call on this from him or
